Domestic violence currently impacts one in every three women in their lifetimes and can happen to anyone regardless of age, race, or socioeconomic status. Becky's Fund is a national 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization focused on domestic and dating violence (DV) awareness and education which was created by Becky Lee in 2006. The mission of Becky's Fund is to prevent DV by fostering awareness, encouraging advocacy among peers, promoting activism through outreach programs, and providing support for victims.

Becky's Fund executes its outreach strategy through national awareness and media campaigns, using radio, print and televised public service announcements. The organization leverages education, Web 2.0 technology and essential resources to enable critical one-on-one connections between victims and survivors. These crucial resources take aim at the heart of damaging social beliefs that perpetuate a cycle of struggle among so many people in our community. Through its website and programs, Becky's Fund also connects donors with the specific needs of domestic violence victims.

The Laffs on the Harbor show has partnered with Becky's Fund to help raise awareness of DV not only in the D.C. metro region, but on a national level as well. "It's our goal to leverage our unique venue and show to be able to contribute resources to Becky's amazing mission" (Joel Kelly, executive producer of the Laffs on the Harbor show)
